Dear friends of Real Medicine,

There are 16,000 homeless children in Los Angeles. The Goodell Group is pleased to announce our partnership with Real Medicine Foundation, supporting their Los Angeles initiative to save homeless, impoverished and abused children. The Goodell Group donates $500 from each transaction to help finance the lifesaving work of Real Medicine Foundation. Please join us and our clients as we help Real Medicine build a support network for the children of Los Angeles.

The Goodell Group at Keller Williams is one of the leading real estate teams in Los Angeles. Whether your goal is to sell your house or commercial property for top dollar, find a new home or investment property or refinance your house, The Goodell Group offers you our experience, our expertise and our resources. We work with homeowners, investors and developers alike, and we specialize heavily in each type of service. Whatever your goals are, our objective is always the same: to meet or exceed your expectations every time by offering the highest standard in Southern California real estate. Please call me for a free consultation with no obligation. I look forward to meeting you and any friends, family or others you might refer to us.

I believe the Real Medicine Foundation is doing important work around the world. I've watched this organization with great interest since its inception, and now I'm proud to help sponsor their efforts to improve the lives of the children of Los Angeles.

Best wishes,

Christian Goodell
